

Figure 1. The inorganic loading in vapor phase infiltrated polyester fabrics is retained after washing in DI water at 100°C for 90 minutes, as shown from the results of thermogravimetric analysis.

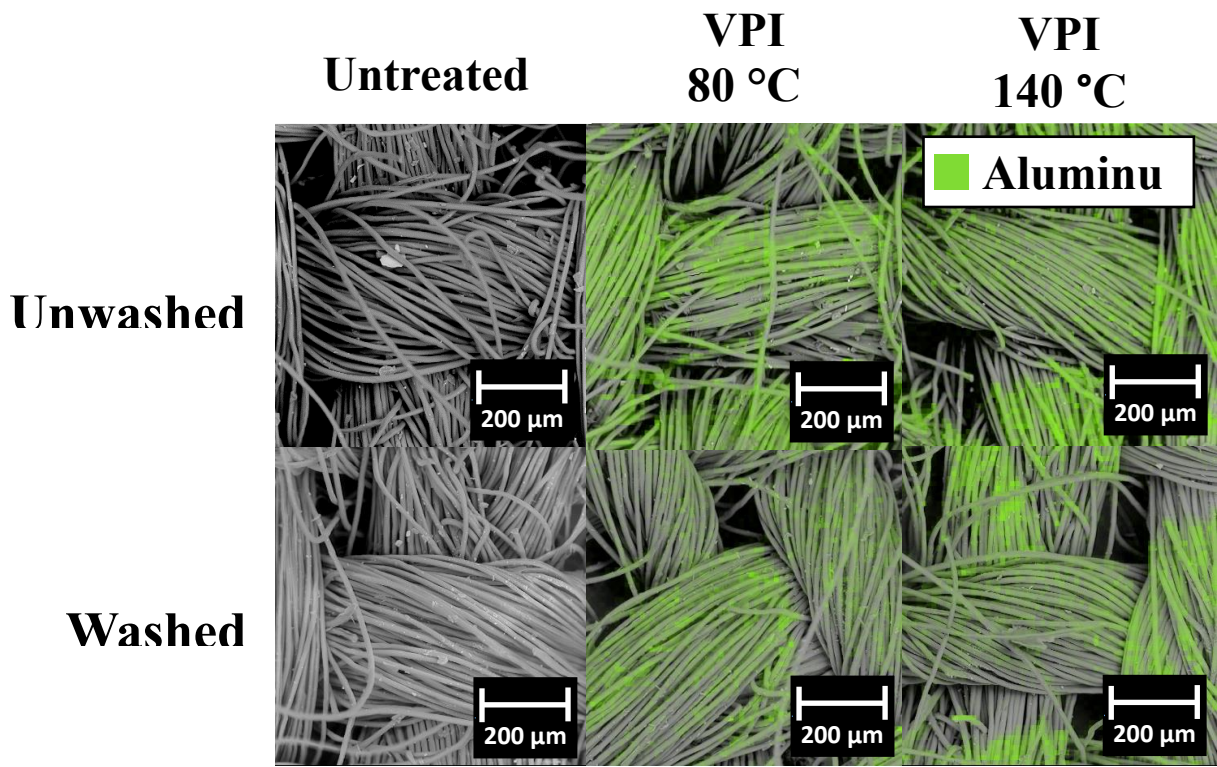

Figure 2. Elemental mapping of infiltrated fabrics collected with SEM/EDX confirming the presence of aluminum in washed fabrics.