

Fig. 1. Artistic impression of the Einstein Telescope, a triangular-shaped underground gravitational wave observatory with 10-km long arms hosting 3 warm and 3 cryogenic interferometers. The total volume of the UHV system exceeds 50,000 m³. Courtesy Marco Kraan, Nikhef.